

ATHEIST OF THE YEAR TITLE REGULATIONS

***

§ 1. The objectives of the Contest

The Contest aims to honor individuals, organizations or institutions for outstanding achievements in the field of:

1. promotion of the atheistic worldview and freedom from religion,
2. counteraction against discrimination based on belief,
3. integration of Polish and international atheist movements.

§ 2. Nomination and selection conditions

1. The Atheist of the Year Title (hereinafter referred to as the Title) is awarded once a year in the domestic and international categories. The members of Jury are appointed by the Organizer in a separate assembly for each of the two categories.
2. The Title may be granted to persons, organizations or institutions for outstanding achievements in line with the objectives of the competition.
3. The Title is awarded by the Jury from among candidates submitted to the Organizer of the Contest.
4. On 1 February at the latest, the Organizer announces a public call for nominations and collects candidacies submitted for the Title until the end of February, then forwards them to the Jury.
5. The Jury may deliberate electronically. At the first meeting the members elect the Chairman from among themselves.
6. The Jury may select from the submitted applications up to 3 nominees in each category. The nominee must agree to be a candidate, unless this is not possible due to special circumstances.
7. The annual Title is awarded to one of the candidates, selected by the Jury in a vote that could take place electronically.
8. The Organizer reserves the right to publish information about the winners and consolation prizes awarded people on the Foundation's website and social media related to the Foundation. The participants agree on this while joining the Contest (subject to p.4).

§ 3. The Organizer of the Contest

1. The Contest is organized by the Kazimierz Lyszczyński Foundation Board.
